

Public and Product Liability Insurance

A Group Liability policy for Potters and other craft workers

The Australian Ceramics Association has negotiated a group insurance scheme to provide Public Liability and Product Liability cover to Association Members for;

- Professional, non-professional potters &/or other craft workers who make or sell their products, including those who sell at craft markets or through other retail outlets.
- Those who teach their craft to groups of 20 persons or less,
- Those who demonstrate or exhibit their craft
- Those who design and make their product provided that no separate design fee is charged.

It is NOT intended for

- Distributors selling a non craft product produced by third parties.
- Enterprises with more than three (3) people assisting (including the insured)
- Sale or supply of imported products
- Sale or supply of products (not made by you) and wholesaled to others
- Sale or supply of any other product which is not craft related
